

Working for Tax & Accounting Professionals

Jessie Seaman, Esq., EA
Attorney & Enrolled Agent
Community Tax

Jessie is an active member of the Florida Bar, Tax Section, NAEA, and CERCA. She has served as an adjunct professor teaching various courses including Business Law, State and Local Taxation, Contemporary Business Ethics, and an exam preparation class for the Enrolled Agents Examination. Jessie has a passion for tax controversy work because it is ever-evolving, applicable to all, and in many cases unfairly enforced. She has been in Tax Representation for over 12 years and currently acts as the Vice President of Community Tax, LLC. Her firm's home office is in Chicago, IL but there are also offices in Florida, South Carolina, Missouri, Puerto Rico, and overseas.
